On-demand service that goes above and beyond

Customer service is our calling card. When you board a Francis Aviation aircraft, you will feel like it's your own private jet. No request is too big. No personal necessity too small. We will outfit your plane with amenities and staff to meet your needs.

From business and VIPs to groups and timely cargo, we strive to exceed your expectations. Comfortable seating, in-flight catering and on-ground concierge services make your travel experience as pleasurable as it is practical.

With access to a variety of aircraft, we can respond to your corporate or personal charter flight needs providing the appropriate sized plane or helicopter upon request. And, our central location in West Texas offers convenient access to virtually any North American destination including major business centers and regional fields.

Your safety is our highest priority. We hire the most qualified people in the industry and train them to our rigorous standards. We hold our entire staff accountable for ensuring our culture and commitment to your safety is upheld.
